

Academic Year 2026 — 2027

Parents' association supporting all families, from kindergarten to higher education.

Who we are Created in 1975, the APE is an independent, secular and apolitical association, open to all parents who wish to participate. Non-profit by nature, its accounts are presented and certified at its Annual General Meeting.

Its volunteers work for every academic level and every class every day to constantly improve learning conditions for LFB students. The mission is collective: our voice is yours!

OUR PURPOSE

Supporting families

OUR PROMISE

Providing concrete solutions to issues raised by parents

1,600+

annual sign-ups for extracurricular activities

1,000+

sign-ups during holidays, including 220 for skiing

20 children given individual support thanks to 13 AESH (learning support assistants) employed by the APE

2,200

attendees at the end-of-year celebrations, run by 40 volunteer parents

Our commitments for 2026–2027

1

Standing up for you, wherever decisions are made

With LFB management, in committees and working groups, and with supervisory bodies: the French Embassy, AEFE and the French Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs.

Open, transparent and constructive dialogue

In the various bodies of LFB regarding issues that directly affect students and their parents: teaching, school climate, inclusion, health, safety, catering, orientation and school life.

3

Facilities worthy of the LFB

Securing greater support from AEFE for the buildings work required, in particular for the renovation of the school canteen.

4

A French Baccalauréat that opens doors

Securing recognition of French Baccalauréat specialties in the Selectividad for access to public universities in Catalonia.

5

Supporting your children from 3ème onwards

Enhanced support for their choice of specialties and orientation.

6

Informed and trained parents

Secondary School representatives, Kindergarten and Primary School contacts, talks for every stage of childhood and adolescence.

Our voice is yours!

We are always listening and we work continuously to make your voice heard and support you and your children....
